

Public Hearing for ESSER III Plans

Identified Needs Addressed in the Stakeholder Meeting:

- Face to face instruction is important to address learning needs
- We may have to continue providing distance learning
- Students greatly benefit from small group instruction that can be done in a variety of ways including, but not limited to, extended day and year learning, tutorials, summer school
- Air filtration and circulation need to be added and improved
- Disinfecting rooms is important
- Recruiting and retaining strategies and training staff to help address students learning needs and learning loss are very important
- An instructional coach could benefit training staff
- Learning programs and materials can benefit addressing learning loss by progress monitoring learning
- Technology devices for at-home learning under various circumstances can benefit student learning to overcome learning loss
- Due to various situations related to COVID, mental health issues and Social / Emotional Learning need to be addressed

Proposed Uses of Funds:

- Upgrading aged AC equipment and installing new equipment to help increase air circulation and ventilation
- Installing any other types of equipment serving air filtration
- Compensation to staff for the purposes of (including but not limited to):
 - Retention of staff in the district
 - Recruitment of staff to the district
 - Staff used to address teacher training
 - Staff used to reduce class sizes
 - Staff used to assist in class instruction
 - Extended day learning
 - Extended year learning
 - Tutorials
- Other means of addressing student learning loss
 - Training for staff from programs, organizations, etc.
- Supplies, resources, and tools for learning:
 - Learning programs and resources
 - Technology for the benefit of off-campus learning opportunities
- Mental Health / Social and Emotional Learning
 - Staff or contracted services that can provide mental health services
 - Resources for mental health benefit
 - Staff that can provide Social and Emotional Learning Guidance or Opportunities
 - Programs and resources that can benefit Social and Emotional Learning